LEXINGTON, KY.Bourbon Cattle Sell High.

The sale of two car loads of export cattle, the property of Messrs. John B. Kennedy and L. B. M. Bedford, both of near Paris, at Pittsburg, illustrates the profit to farmers who produce the best stock for Eastern markets.

The cattle fed by Mr. Kennedy were one year younger than those of his neighbor and weighed an average of 125 pounds less. The younger cattle lost in shipping an average of 75 pounds, while the heavy cattle only lost an average of 49 pounds per head, the latter being fed corn till the day of shipment, while the former were turned to blue grass May 1.

The cattle of Mr. Kennedy were sold at Pittsburg for $6.40 per hundred, while those of Mr. Bedford realized $6.30.

Based upon the weight of the cattle before shipment and making allowances for expenses the cattle realized their owners the handsome figure of $6.05 net per hundred.

Faith Shown By Works.

Ten ministers, and one evangelist in Kansas City are erecting a Christian church there. The building is to be constructed entirely by ministerial labor, and is to serve the purpose of a congregation in the district until funds are raised for a more pretentious structure. Not one of the ministers is an expert carpenter but each can drive a nail and saw a board and they hope to have the structure ready for occupancy soon.
